

The Hickory Post Vendor Agreement

The Hickory Post is a licensed South Carolina business specializing in reselling art, furniture, and accessories. As a vendor, you give The Hickory Post consent to sort, picture, list, store, and ship all items given for six months. Once ALL items are listed, they will remain in inventory for six months. After six months any remaining items that have not been sold, will be liquidated. Items not sold can be donated by The Hickory Post or picked up by the vendor within two weeks after notification of the vendor's six-month consignment period. In some cases, The Hickory Post will decide to hold items in inventory longer. This will only be items that have not sold but have had interest while in inventory.

Sale prices will be decided by The Hickory Post after researching comparable items' current rate. Once an item is sold, The Hickory Post will record the sale on Rose Software so the vendor will have access to tracking and sales. Profit after sales will be split 60% to the vendor and 40% to The Hickory Post. The sum of the split will be after shipping and platform fees. Payouts are on the 15th and 25th of each month unless the consignor chooses to be paid by check which is paid on the 25th of each month.

1. Collect items you would like to sell that fall into the art, furniture and accessories categories.
2. You can drop off or request a pickup date/time from The Hickory Post.
3. Items will be sorted, pictured, listed, stored, and shipped while you sit back and make money!

The Hickory Post has the right to deny any items. Items with stains or broken/non-working items cannot be sold and will be donated. We will no longer be accepting used bedding. Items can be denied because of a number of reasons such as, but not limited to condition of the item, desirability, current style.

Bring items in ready to sell condition. Items must be clean, and from an odor and smoke free home. All items MUST be completely free of all animal hair.

UNACCEPTED ITEMS

We look through items within 2 weeks of the drop off day. Un-consigned item(s) can be donated or picked up. Unsellable items must be picked up two weeks from drop off date or by pick up date given at time of drop off. Any item(s) left past this date will be considered abandoned and become the sole property of The Hickory Post and will be subject to donation. If you cannot make this deadline because of special circumstances, you must contact us before the pickup deadline.

PRICING AND SELLING

Items to be sold are priced based on similar items available on the retail consignment market and have been researched to offer a competitive, fair pricing. Consignor commission is 60% of the sale price after all fees and shipping have been deducted. We put a lot of work in research, pricing, and listing items on all platforms and require that you leave consigned items in the store for the full selling period. Should you desire to take back your items before the consignment period ends, the consignor will be responsible for pick up and required to pay an 'Early Withdrawal' fee per item of 10% of the current price of the item(s). A two-day notice is required.

GETTING PAID

Electronic payments are issued on the 15th and 25th of every month, or next business day, and checks are issued on the 25th of each month and available for pick up at your convenience.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Hickory Post makes our best effort to sell and care for all consignments. However, all consigned merchandise is left at the consignor's risk. The Hickory Post cannot be held responsible nor will we reimburse consignor for any loss or damage by fire, theft, accident, or any other cause. Forgotten Items that are not picked up by consignor within one week after their six-month period will become property of The Hickory Post. We markdown prices for promotional pricing at our own discretion.
